Exhibitors Reception

Please join us Friday evening from 7:00 –8:30 PM for an exhibitor's reception in the show hall. This is your chance to "meet and greet" other exhibitors, your show committee, and hopefully our judges will make an appearance.

We are grateful to Ken and Elaine Chatwin for providing snacks and beverages for all those attending. Hope to see you there!

For Sale Birds

Any Exhibitor wishing to sell birds may do so in the open classes, by placing a "FOR SALE" sign, 5" x 7", after judging is completed.

Birds may not be removed without the consent of the show committee.

FOR SALE section is not guaranteed due to space limitations. First come first served if we have space. NO OUTSIDE SELLING PERMITTED!

All outside soliciting is subject to a $50.00 donation to the VP&FPA.

Please Read the Fine Print

1. Exhibitors will not be allowed to remove their exhibits before designated times, unless with special permission. All birds must be signed before taken from building.

2. The card of the Association will be placed upon each coop, giving the entry number of Exhibitor and name of specimen. This will be a CLOSED CARD show.

3. The Show Committee and their assistants will be allowed in the Judging Area while judging is in progress; this area will always be under the control of the Show Committee.

4. The Association reserves the right to put more than one specimen in a coop, providing the birds belong to the same Exhibitor. In no case will two males be cooped together.

5. No prize award cards or ribbons will be allowed to be attached to any coop except the show cards awarded at the present show. PLEASE NOTE: Show will not be responsible for birds or stock left after the final day.

6. The Association reserves the right to limit the entries when the entries received exceed the accommodation.

7. During the Show, the Show Committee will have full charge of all exhibits, and they cannot be removed from the show building without his/her written consent. Any Exhibitor removing birds from the building without written permission from the Show Committee will forfeit all prizes which may have been awarded at this show by the Exhibitor.

8. No Exhibitor will be allowed to handle anything but his own exhibits.

9. Care will be exercised, but the Association does not hold itself responsible for loss or accidents to exhibits.

10. All eggs laid during the show will have fertility destroyed and become property of the Association.

11. Protests must be handed to the Show Committee, in writing, accompanied by $25.00 within twelve hours after awards have been posted. If, after investigation, they prove to be without foundation, the deposit will be forfeited.

12. Judging: In the absence of competition in any section or, if the stock exhibited be of inferior quality, the Judge would award only such premiums as the exhibit merits. Judges are requested to adhere to this regulation.

13. All birds must be provided with numbered leg bands. The number must be on entry form in space provided.

14. NOTE: Any exhibit showing disease or lice/ mites will not be allowed in the show

The Vancouver Poultry & Fancy Pigeon Association
2026 Annual Show
October 2-3, 2026

building. This rule will be strictly enforced. Any animal/bird that appears sick at any time during the show will be sent home at the owner's expense.

15. All shipping coops and crates must have owner's name plainly written thereon as a means of identification.

16. No Exhibitor will be allowed to coop or pack any exhibit for shipment unless accompanied by the Show Committee or one of their assistants at time of cooping or packing.

17. Although every precaution will be taken to prevent loss or injury to exhibits, neither the Vancouver Poultry & Fancy Pigeon Association nor any of its show committees will be held responsible for such loss or injury.

18. In making out entries, Exhibitor will abide by the following rules: a) Use ONE entry form for each exhibitor. b) Additional entry forms supplied free on request. c) Put the leg band number in space provided. d) State the correct breed and variety.

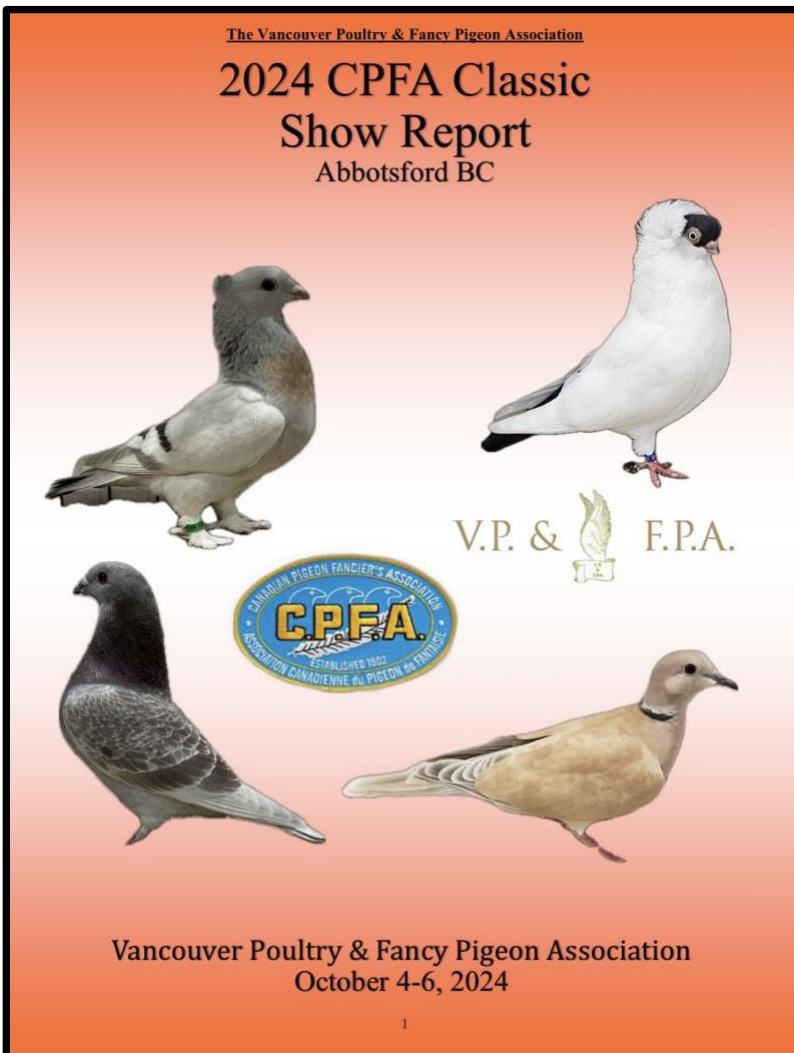

19. Judging sheets are to be dated and signed by the Judges involved.

20. All entries must be made as Old Cock, Old Hen, Young Cock and Young Hen.

21. A class will be provided for any Breed not listed in this Show Catalogue list if entries warrant.

22. MANAGEMENT: Management reserves the right to decide any point not covered by the rules and to correct any error or make any necessary alterations in the Show Catalogue.
